ECA-EMCC LUXEMBOURG ELECTS 2023-2026 BOARD

ECA-EMCC Luxembourg is pleased to announce the appointment of its 2023-2026 Board, following a successful election at the recent AGM. The Board plays a crucial role in charting the strategic direction of the association and its execution, and working to meet the evolving needs of our local membership.

EMCC Luxembourg President Mary Devine commented: “We are delighted to welcome a dynamic group of experienced and knowledgeable Board Members to our team. Their diverse perspectives and expertise will enable us to continue our work to professionalise the coaching industry, while providing our members with valuable opportunities to connect, collaborate and grow”.

Incoming Board Members:

- Christina Clark, Communications Manager
- Monica Duarte, Treasurer and Membership Manager
- Isabelle Ferlin, Accreditation Manager
- Nadège Ravoux, Group Supervision and Solidarity Coaching Manager

Nathalie de Kerchove continues in her role as General Secretary and Catherine Henrotte continues as Governance and Compliance Manager.

In this special moment of renewal, EMCC Luxembourg expresses deep gratitude to our outgoing Board member, Marie-Britte Bissen, who founded the Association in 2006 and was President for 11 years, and Treasurer and Membership Manager for 6 years. Her leadership and commitment over the years have been inspirational.

We thank Sonata Kucin-Louvigny and Patricia Prant-Delmas, Special Invitees to our Board from 2021-2023 for their dedicated service and invaluable contributions to the association’s growth and success.

Looking ahead, the ECA-EMCC Luxembourg Board is eager to continue its mission of empowering and strengthening the coaching, mentoring and supervision industry, to drive progress and positive change in our community and beyond.
